LOWER VALLEY LAND OWNERS ASK PAY FOR DRAINAGE DITCHES

The board of governors of the E. Paso Valley Water Users' association met Monday atternoon and discussed ways and means of getting rights of way through land in the lower valley for the drainage system which will be installed as a part of the Elephant Butte project.

Butte project.

It was stated that the upper valley land owners were willing to grant rights of way through lands, but the lower valley owners wished to be paid. Mr. Martidez, who presided, stated that the association had no money for this purpose. No decision was reached.

Makes Record Loan to A.

Swartz For New Store. A loan of $200,000 was made Tuesda & local bank to a local business man macks by a local institution to a local markshif.

The loan was made to A. Schwartz, personally, for the erection of the new 126,000 Popular store building at the corner of San Aptonio and Mesa avenue. The loan was made by the Rio Grando Valley Bank and Trust company and was negotiated by Winchester Cooler, president, and T. M. Wingo, first president. The loan was made personally to Mr. Schwartz, who owns the site of the new store which will be leased to the Popular Dry Goods company for a long term of years.

Site as Collareral.

As collateral for the big loan the new Popular building, which is being built by Mr. Schwartz and the site are given in at $65,000, which is considered a conservative value by local bankers

"This establishes a record for loans in El Pako, I believe," said Mr. Wingo Tuesday afternoon. "I know of no bank or individual making such a sized loan here and it means that El Paso and her lanking institutions have reached the blaid where they can finance their own affairs without seeking outside capital."

the courthouse and the notes in counse-tion with the loan required 160 in war stamps to be placed on them. The money is now placed to Mr. Schwartz's credit and will be drawn by him as he needs it for the construction of the line Popular building.
